

6516208622.txt

I live in the DC area, and while I can get traffic info from traditional radio, It's never when I want it. With XM radio its always there, always when I need it. If traditional radio wants to provdie a similar service, maybe the NAB would have an arguement, but they don't. Please allow XM radio to continue to provide "local content." It's a big help to me and my family.
Ron Henke